Yesterday morning the Convention of Delegates which had been elected at the Democratic Primary Meetings, to nominate candidates for the various city offices, to be elected on Monday next, met at Smith & Nixon's Hall, at nine o'elook.

On motion of Bart, Smith, Thomas J. Peter was chosen Chairman; Thomas J. Smith and M. H. Medary were both chosen for the office of Scoretary pro. tem., but the former was not present, while the latter refused to serve, and the election resulted in calling Maj. Joseph W. Burke to that position.

It was then, after some misunderstanding and debate, resolved that one person be appointed from each ward upon a committee on credentials, and one on permanent organization, and one on rules and regulations, which resulted in the following appointments: On Credentiels.—Jos. W. Burke, Patrick Laville, B. Schweigman, Joseph Somers, George Mayle, Jesse Harlan, B. Huber, Henry Eppler, H. L. Katerkamp, Charles Bloebaum, B. Gal-lenbeck, J. C. Stubb, Frank Armstrong, B. Tonnies, Frank Darr, Thomas Thiernau, Levi

On Permanent Organization.—J. W. Fitzgerald, A. J. Pollock, J. Klerated, Hugh Jackson, N. Schormacher, John Davis, Fred. Bloom, J. H. Kelley, A. Kurwig, S. C. Schroeder, L. Kasting, C.B. Eston, P. W. Callahan, A. Pierson, John S. Hickey, John Shearer.

A recess was then taken for half an hour, during which time, at the request of Bart. Smith, the Committee on Rules visited the William Tell, where, we presume, they found, beside those articles they were appointed to form, sundry others, which, although nameless, were no doubt stimulating; for they remained longer than was intended or was necessary for the transaction of their business, and when they returned were quite jubilant.

After the Convention had been again called to order, the committees made the following reports:

ON PERMANENT ORGANIZATION. President-Thomas J. Peter. Vice Presidents—Wesley M. Cameron, J. Kiersted, George P. O'Donnell.
Secretaries—Joseph W. Burke, Levi Adkins,

Jacob Diehl. The Committee on Credentials said that they had no report to make; for, when the different wards had been called, no objection had been made to any of the delegates, and they supposed every thing in the shape of a difference, had there been any, had been amicably settled. The Committee on Rules and Regulations then made the following report:

Resolved, That a majority of all the votes cast shall be necessary for an election.

Resolved, That no delegate shall speak more than twice on any subject, nor more than five minutes each time Resolved, That the lowest candidate shall be dropped each ballot. Resolved, That the ballotings shall be by wards, commencing at the first and continuing through in regular rotation.

On motion, it was then resolved that the President appoint three persons who shall serve in the capacity of Sergeant-at-arms. The following were appointed: Jessee Harlan, Thos. Roberts and Robert Good.

The Convention then proceeded to the election of a candidate for Mayor. Dr. J. L. Vattier, Geo. Hatch, Wm. J. Flagg, J. B. Carpenter and Alfred Buchanan were put in nomination, with the following result : BALLOTS.

BLUE CLAY .- A correspondent, who is in nowise loth to use the editorial "wE," sends us the following:

"There is a strata of blue clay some two feet and a half below the surface of the ground, that extends for five squares north of Richmond street, running parallel with it for nearly the distance of half a mile east and west, crossing Western Row. Builders can not account for this singular freak of nature. It extends to the depth of some fifteen feet. We believe it to be the only region in the city where blue clay appears so near the surface.

MADISON, and., 1858.

Dr. Gro. W. PHILLIPS. Cincinnati, Ohio:—Having used several small bottles of your "Cough Syrup, personally and in my family, and having seen its effects on others, in numerous instances of severe cold and coughs. I most cheerfully recommend it as an infallible remedy in all such cases. If this Syrup were in general use, I confidently believe a large majority of the colds, accompanied by coughs, that now terminate in Consumption, would be effectually arrested. In fact, I can see no necessity for any, who can obtain this remedy, being thus afflicted.

Respectfully yours.

THE PRESS.

CINCINNATI, THURSDAY, MARCH 31. PROSPECTS OF TRADE .- As to trade, there never opened upon the country a better promise of a prosperous season. The country has been of a prosperous season. The country has been restricted in trade by the financial calamity of 1857; by the fear of coming events; by the shortness of the crops of 1858; and by the general disposition to pay debts, and to economize expenses. The debts of the country have been diminished; the imports have been reduced; the business of railroads has been curtailed; and all this has produced a most salutary effect. The aggregate debt of Ohio does not, at the present moment, exceed twenty per cent. of its property, (including all classes of debt), and surely one-fifth of the entire property, in the form of debt, is but a comparatively small amount. The property of Ohio is more than a thousand millions; and its entire debt does not much, if any, exceed two hundred millions. It is true, that most of the Central and Western States are not nearly as well off as this; but, at the present moment, there are probably but, at the present moment, there are probably not half a dozen out of thirty-two States, which are so seriously in debt, as to cause any reasonable anxiety. In truth, whatever may be said about debt, extravagance, speculations, etc., etc., the American people, in 1859, are probably the freest from debt and speculation of any nation whatever. Extravagance we must plead guilty to; simply for the reason, that we have had extravagant means. Besides, with the most extraordinary commercial pros-perity, there was hardly the possibility of avoiding extravagant schemes, expenses, and ideas. But, the increase was greater than the expense, and while the moral effect may be lamented, it is entirely blameless as to trade

The time has now come, when trade, reviving from its lethargy, will be rapidly and pow-erfully extended—partly from foreign imports, partly from domestic manufactures, and chiefly from the general revival of industry and com-merce. The prospects of Trade, in 1859, are, therefore, most flattering.—Railroad Record.

PREPARING FOR DEATH .- Few distinguished mon in England die that their biographies are not given simultaneously with their deaths in the London Times. "How it is done" is briefly told in the following paragraph, which take from Mr. Taylor's column in the Chicago

"In the office of the London Times there is a bureau that, one would think, must be a ter-ror to not a few. Every man whose life is deemed worth taking has a place in a certain 'pigeon-hole,' wherein the record is kept con-stantly 'written up' to the latest possible pe-riod; a sort of 'log' to be displayed the minute life's voyage is ended. Deeds done and words said in the heat of passion are there; acts per-formed at long intervals are brought into start ling proximity, and all, of necessity, divested of the glow and action, the touch of nature as it were, that made us regard them in the living actor with a lenient, if not a loving eye. Such a man dies to-night; the 'pigeon-hole' gives up its dead, and to-morrow morning, even before the subject has begun to lie in state, the leading acts and incidents of his life are spread abroad to the world. Quick work they make ANOTHER THRORY .- The Cincinnati Daily Press, in accounting for the peculiar qualities of the Artesian well at Louisville, says the remains of some pre-Adamite monster have been reached, which communicates to the water a taste and smell very peculiar.

Hon. John Pettit has a theory in regard to the Artesian water at Lafayette, which is quite as rational as the above. He says the Lafay-ette folks "bored and bored" until they finally tapped some Chinese out-houses, on the other side, which give the fluid its very peculiar smell and taste.—Madison Courier.

Elisha Potter, member of Congress from Rhode Island, on being abused by some ill-mannered member of the House, rose and said: "Mr. Speaker, when I am at home I associate with gentlemen, but when I come to the Congress of the United States, I am obliged to associate with such as the people choose to send

A Western orator having delivered himself of the following: "The glorious American eagle, which stands with one foot on the Atlantic and the other on the Pacific coast,' was unable to proceed any further. A bystander exclaimed, "My friend, if you don't relieve your eagle pretty soon, he will split open."

A traveler announces as a fact, (and though he is a traveler, we believe him,) that he once in his life beheld people "minding their own business." This remarkable occurrence hap-pened at sea—the passengers being too sick to attend to each other's concerns.

Women, in general, are worth more than men; and, iff fact, our vices cause the defects of women. Almost all their vices belong to us, while their virtues and qualities are theirs and theirs only. When Queen Victoria returned to the palace after the marriage of the Princess Royal, what did Her Majesty say? Pulling off a glove, she ejaculated, "There, I've got one kid off my hand, now for the other."

Anthony sought happiness in love; Brutus in glory; Casar in dominion—the first found disgrace, the second disgust, the last ingratitude, and each destruction. During a recent steamboat trip down the Ohio, the berths became so scarce that a tall Vermont Yankee let his at $2 per night, and lept in it by day. There is a rumor in Kansas that Jim Lane has got religion. A wicked editor out there says: "If so, he has got something that doesn't belong to him."

The wives along the Mississippi never blow up their husbands. They leave it all to the steamboats, which are sure to do it sooner or later. A daily religious paper is to be started soon in New York city. It will fail, unless it contain accounts of a great deal that is irreligious.

I shall continue to confine myself to a strictly retail trade in the finer grades of giving much attention to designing new styles, and securing the latest New York and Paris productions. I shall, as herotofore, be supplied with Gentlemens. Dress Hals from the three leading New York halters, vis: "Genin," "Leary & Co.," and "Beebe & Co." Our own styles of Dress Hat will be issued early in March, and will, we trust, meet the approval of gentlemen of taste.
